“A revival of true godliness among is the greatest and most urgent of all our needs. To seek this should be our first work. There must be earnest effort to obtain the blessings of the Lord, not because He is not willing to bestow His blessing upon us, but because we are unprepared to receive it. Our Heavenly ‘father is more willing to give His Holy Spirit to them that ask Him...ISM 121. “ A revival and reformation must take place under the ministration of the Holy Spirit. Revival and reformation are two different things. Revival signifies a renewal of spiritual life, a quickening of the powers of mind and heart, a resurrection from spiritual death. Reformation signifies a reorganization, a change in ideas and theories, habits, and practices. Reformation will not bring forth the goo fruit of righteousness until it is connected with the revival of the Spirit. Revival and reformation are to do their appointed, and in doing this work they must blend.” RH Feb. 25, 1902
