“Our God has heaven and earth at His command, and He knows just what we need. We can see only a little way before us; but all things are naked and open unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to do.” Hebrews 4:13.
Above the distractions of the earth, He sits enthroned; all things are open to His divine survey; and from His great and calm eternity He orders that which His providence sees best.
Not even a sparrow falls to the ground without the Father’s notice. Satan’s hatred against God leads him to delight in destroying even the dumb creatures. It is only through God’s protecting care that the birds are preserved to gladden us with their songs of joy. But He does not forget even the sparrows. ..Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.” Matthew 10:31. – Testimonies for the Church, vol. 8, pp. 272,273
